Numb. 7514.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 8. to Saturday June 12. 1736.

Whitehall, June 11.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Guardian of the Kingdom of Great Britain, &c: Which Addreſs her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly, and to order, that it ſhould be tranſmitted to the King at Hanover.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, with great Joy and moſt grateful Hearts, embrace the preſent happy Occaſion of expreſſing the deep Senſe we have of the Peace and Proſperity of your Majeſty's happy Reign over us, eſpecially of the late ſignal Bleſſing of the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

One happy Event treads upon the Heels of another: We were lately charmed with your Majeſty's Goodneſs in beſtowing the Princeſs Royal on his Highneſs the Prince of Orange, ſo much to the Satisfaction of all your Subjects, who had a juſt Commemoration of the Bleſſings procured for and tranſmitted to us by his Predeceſſor King William of glorious Memory, which is now ſucceeded by another happy Marriage equally agreeable to your People.

Your Majeſty having diſpoſed of his Royal Highneſs to a Princeſs adorned with many ſublime Virtues and Accompliſhments, a Branch of the illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe Gotha, always famous for their firm Attachment to the Proteſtant Religion and Intereſt; we are thereby fully convinced and aſſured of your Royal Intentions to tranſmit down in Safety to the lateſt Poſterity, our Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Properties.

In Gratitude therefore for ſuch Bleſſings, and the Proſpect of their Duration and Continuance, we think ourſelves indiſpenſibly obliged to return our hearty Thanks and Acknowledgements to your moſt ſacred Majeſty, for your Princely Care and Vigilance for the Good of your People, manifeſted in ſo many ſignal Inſtances.

We heartily congratulate your Majeſty on the preſent happy Occaſion; That Heaven may ſmile on this auſpicious Union, and reward the ſame with a numerous and glorious Offspring, adorn'd with all Virtues becoming ſo high a Deſcent; That your Majeſty's Counſels may be attended with Wiſdom, and crowned with Succeſs and Proſperity in their Events; That your Kingdoms may flouriſh in Peace; That the Government as it is now eſtabliſhed in Church and State, may continue inviolate and undiſturbed; And that your Majeſty and your Poſterity after you, may enjoy a long and glorious Reign over us, are the ſincere Prayers of your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Petersbourg, May 15. We have Advice, that Felt Marſhal Munich is actually marched to the Crimea with 50 Regiments of regular Troops, which make in this Country near 60000 Men, beſides a great Number of Coſſacks and Tartars. Some ſay he is gone the direct Way through the Deſert to the Precop; and others, that he is gone along the Banks of the River Nieper, though this laſt is much the longeſt Way, for the Conveniency of having his Artillery, Proviſions, and heavy Baggage carried Part of the Way by Water. Some Days ago a Courier arrived here from the Ruſſian Camp before Aſoph, with Advice, that the Artillery was at laſt arrived from Pauloff, and that General Felt-Marſhal Lacy, who is to command the Siege, was expected there the 6th Inſtant. The King of Denmark has recalled from this Court his Miniſter Count Dehn, who is in a very ill State of Health, and not able to bear the Coldneſs of this Climate.

Hanover, June 15, N. S. On Tueſday the 5th Inſtant, his Majeſty landed at Helvoetſluys at Two in the Afternoon, under a tripple Diſcharge of the Cannon; and went immediately in a Coach for the Brille, where he was ſaluted by a Diſcharge of the Cannon from the Ramparts; and croſſed over to Maeſlandſluys; from whence his Majeſty proceeded to Utrecht; and arrived there between Nine and Ten in the Evening, and reſted at M. Pouchoud's his Commiſſary at that Place. The next Morning being Wedneſday the 6th, his Majeſty ſet forward about Five, and came to Ippenbuhren that Evening, where he lay. The next Morning being Thurſday the 7th, his Majeſty ſet out from thence for Stolzenau, attended by Parties of Dragoons of his own Troops, and got thither that Evening, where he ſupped and reſted that Night. And the next Morning, Friday the 8th, his Majeſty ſet out for Herrenhauſen about Six, and arrived there the ſame Morning at Nine in perfect Health, and was received and complimented by the Regency, and a great Number of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction. Yeſterday in the Afternoon his Excellency Horatio Walpole, Eſq; his Majeſty's Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General, whom his Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint to attend him during his Stay in his German Dominions, arrived here from the Hague, and in the Evening waited on his Majeſty at Herrenhauſen.

Hague, June 19, N. S. The Pruſſian Miniſter had Yeſterday a Conference with the Deputies of the States, upon their laſt Reſolution